TRANSPORTATION OF STORES.

PROPOSALS, sealed and endorsed "Proposals for freight to Pensacola," will be received at this Bureau until three o'clock p. m. on Monday, the 20th day of August, 1849, for the transportation of 1,300 barrels (more or less) of Government stores from the navy yard at Brooklyn, New York, to the navy yard at Pensacola, Florida.

The offers must state the price asked per barrel, without distinction between wet and dry; and each barrel (or two half barrels) of beef, pork, flour, rice, vinegar, pickles, whisky, or dried apples, will be considered as a barrel; all other packages to be estimated at the rate of 5½ cubic feet to a barrel, whatever they may contain; and in the

to be estimated at the rate of 5½ cubic feet to a barrel, whatever they may contain; and in the measurement of all casks other than barrels, the fifths will be deducted. Ten fair-weather working lay-days to be allowed at the port of Brooklyn for taking in cargo, and fifteen fair-weather working lay-days to be allowed at Pensacola for discharging the same. No primage to be allowed. Payment to be made by any navy agent in the United States, to be selected by the bidder, and named in the charter-party, within thirty days after producing satisfactory evidence of the delivery of the cargo. The vessel must pass the usual inspection, and be at the Brooklyn mavy yard by the 24th day of Angust, 1849, ready to receive her cargo; and, if not presented for examination within three days after being notified of her acceptance, the Bureau will consider itself at liberty to offer the freight to the next lowest bidder, or to make such afrangements as may best subserve the public interest. subserve the public interest.

JAS. B. GREENWELL and the real estate of Benothers, heirs of Bennet Greenwell, deceased.

THE bill states that said Bennet Greenwell died largely indebted to the complainant in this cause and to divers other persons; that he left no personal estate to pay the same; that the said Bennet Greenwell died intestate, leaving the complainant, Lloyd A. Brewer, and Mary, his wife, Peter H. Stone and Jane, his wife, Mary E. Brown, William E. Brown, Laura A. Brown, and Martha J. Brown, James B. Greenwell, Bennet Greenwell, Adrea Smith, and Sophia Greenwell, his heirs-at-law; that said deceased Bennet Greenwell left real estate of great value, and prays for a sale of said real estate to value, and prays for a sale of said real estate to pay the said debts. The bill further states, that James B. Greenwell, Bennet Greenwell, Sophia Greenwell, and Adrea Smith, are residents of the District of Columbia. Therefore, ordered this 4th day of June, 1849, by the judges of St. Mary's county court, as a court of equity, that the s.id James B. Greenwell, Bennet Greenwell, Sophia Greenwell, and Adrea Smith, be and appear this court on or before the first Monday in Decem ber next, either in person or by attorney, and a full and perfect answer make to the said bill of complaint, otherwise the said bill as against them will be taken pro confesso.

Provided a copy of this order be published once per week for three months before the said first Mon-Gay in December next, in some newspaper printed n the District of Columbia.

Worcester's Universal and Critical Dic-

Worcester's Universal and Critical Dietionary of the English Language.

By J. E. Worcester, LL. D.

One volume, Svo. sheep, 1032 pages—Price $3.50.

The publishers respectfully invite attention to the following eminent testimony to the excellence of this standard dictionary.

The execution of this Dictionary fully answers to its title. The Vocasulary is probably more comprehensive than that of all preceding English Dictionaries united. Constant reference is made to Autrobutius with respect to words newly introduced, and care is taken to note such as are technical, foreign, obsolete, provincial, or vulgar. The difference of this system of Notation, which is easily understood, and founded on a more complete analysis of the vowel sounds than we have elsewhere met with, together with his plan of exhibiting all the best English authorities in relation to words differently pronounced by different orthoepists, gives to this work important advantages as a Pronouncing Dictionary. In orthography he has made no arbitrary changes, but where usage is various and fluctuating, he has aimed to be consistent, and to reduce to the same rules words of similar formation. The insertion of Grammatical forms and in they are given in other English Dictionaries, and the short critical notes on the orthography, the pronounciation, the grammatical form and construction, and the peculiar, technical, local, and American uses of words interspersed through the volume, give to this work much additional value. The copious Vocabulary of Modern Geographical names, with their pronunciation, and a greatly enlarged and improved edition of Walker's Key to the pronunciation of Classical and Scripture proper names, are important appendages to the Dictionary was published; and its already extensive use, both among cultivated English readers, and men of wide learning, affords good testimony of its merits. We confidently recommend it as containing an ample and careful view of the present state of our language.
